Ceremony Flowers

It is common to relocate the ceremony florals to the reception after the ceremony, for example the hanging jars can be relocated to dining tables and the statement pieces placed at the base of the sweetheart table.

Item	Description	Price per	Quantity	Subtotal
Statement pieces	Large arrangements can be used to create a grounded meadow display for the alter or aisle.	$350
Garlands of greenery	For each 4' section - hang multiples on your arch, the champagne station or the get-away car.	$165
Chair décor	Hanging jars filled with flowers and foliage.	$85

Item	Description	Price per	Quantity	Subtotal
Toss petals	Paper cones filled with fresh or dried flower petals. Order for all or enough for the aisle seats. *Check with the venue to see if this is allowed.	$10

Reception Flowers

For a full table surface we recommend a mix of three jars/bottles per table, depending on the size and type of table, more may be needed, for example on long banquet tables, order at least 5 for an 8 top.

Item	Description	Price per	Quantity	Subtotal
Focal arrangements	Create a beautiful moment to pause, use at the welcome table or bar.	$250
Centerpieces	Vase is approx. 5.5" wide x 3" tall, flower max of 14" and width about 15" total.	$175
Small table arrangements	16 oz mason jars or similar size vase, filled with flowers, total width of arrangement about 9".	$95
Bud vases	5 glass bottles/small vases in a mix of shapes and sizes with about 3 stems in each.	$100
Edible flowers	Use to garnish cocktails, food, & desserts, priced per 50 individual flowers.	$16

Color Palette Suggestions

Interpretations of these color combinations will vary naturally throughout the seasons. For very specific color palettes, please consider a Full Service package. Most Popular Color Combinations we grow:

- Soft sunset - blush, peach, & cream with pops of terracotta or burgundy.
- Bright citrus - light and dark orange, yellow, & bright greens, with pops of white.
- Wild & vibrant - almost every color in the rainbow in bright & saturated tones.
- Classic neutral - white, cream & green, with neutral accents, such as brown or blush.
- Autumn leaves - warm golds, yellow, oranges and reds, with browns, reflecting the season
